Patterns help us to understand our world.

Systems come from routines and acting on what's important.

All things change.

People explore for different reasons.

People work together to accomplish things that they could not do alone.

Communication is effective when the message is received clearly.

Communities help people.