

Sort it Out (geometry 2)

Here is a set of 16 geometric shapes. Your task is to sort these representations into whatever categories make sense to you.

- You may have as many categories as you like.
- Your categories might be completely separate, or they might overlap. Some categories might be specialized subsets within a category.

