

Star and Box – Routine Directions

Star and box can be easily brought into any task or classroom routine to encourage reflection

The final problem or question on every task can be to: "Return to the beginning of the task and review the learning. Place a star next to the part that you enjoyed most and put a box around something that you have a question about."